

Welcome to Heritage!

Thanks for joining us today as we gather in Christ's name to worship the living and triune God! We come as sinners to our holy and almighty Lord, to our merciful and faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. We come to lift His name on high, to hear the good news of His salvation of sinners, to commune with Him, to be fed by Him in His Word and by His Spirit. We pray that you are blessed in your time with us!

Prayer of Confession and Supplication

O God, merciful Father, we confess our sin to you. We confess that we set up idols in our hearts and worship them. We do not set your name apart as holy, but use it in vain. We keep not the Lord's Day holy, nor honor those in authority over us. We murder our neighbor with our lips and with our thoughts; and commit adultery with our eyes and our hearts. We take the possessions, time, and good names of our friends, family, and co-workers. We acknowledge that we do not speak all the truth, all the time. We are discontent with what you have given us in envying and desiring those things which belong to our neighbors. For these sins, O merciful Father, forgive us.

Declaration of Pardon and Words of Assurance
