Glam Camping in Arizona

Many people enjoy taking to the great outdoors with nothing more than a backpack of supplies, but rough-and-tumble adventures are not for everyone. Some prefer a more elegant experience in nature.

Thanks to the 'glamping' phenomenon, the words luxurious and camping can finally be used in the same sentence. No more sore backs from sleeping on rocks. No more pounding tent stakes into the ground.

No more eating stale trail mix and whatever can be cooked in a pot over the fire. It's time to relax in nature with spacious tents, fluffy beds, private chefs, and whatever else you can dream.

Arizona Luxury Expeditions

Arizona Luxury Expeditions offers mobile luxury campsites to any location in Arizona, specializing in the Grand Canyon, Monument Valley, Page, and Sedona, as well as anywhere in the Southwest. The tours can accommodate various locations on a single trip, making it possible to see, feel and experience more without sacrificing time or any destinations on your dream trip through Arizona.

For lodging, guests can expect to stay in Safari-style expedition tents. Each of these tents are fitted with necessities like fully-dressed beds, fans, towels, lighting and a fully supplied shower caddy to compliment the toilets and showers that are also available on the glamp site.

Their ‘glamping’ packages include far more than just luxurious lodging. Operators will also be available at the glamp site to ensure that guests will be able to truly enjoy a relaxing and stress-free trip. These operators will prepare meals and assist as professional guides. They will also be able to assist in the planning and implementing of activities—everything from helicopter and jeep tours, to horseback riding and river rafting. Arizona Luxury Expeditions allows guests to customize their dream trip, and works directly with them to ensure that they can enjoy a stress-free adventure through Arizona!

American Safari Camp

American Safari Camp was developed based on the need for luxury accommodations in remote settings that are close to world class National Parks throughout North America. They were the first to develop a luxury accommodation mobile camp that can go virtually anywhere.

American Safari Camp currently offers glamping accommodations at two iconic, Arizona destinations: the Grand Canyon and Lake Powell. The company prides itself on offering ‘elevated experiences’ that are beyond the typical vacation or camping trip. And with American Safari Camp, you’ll get a custom-tailored trip that allows guests to fully engulf themselves in the beautiful landscapes of the southwest, while still being able to lodge in a comfortable and boutique hotel-themed, mobile camp.

Each camp is paired with basic necessities like showers, fresh towels and private toilets. The private tent area also has a variety of games and charging stations. Each ‘glamping site’ is also staffed with a chef and a camp manager who assists in scheduling all local activities and experiences. In the evenings, guests can also anticipate cooking s’mores around a campfire and stargazing through telescopes.

Shash Dine’ EcoRetreat

Shash Dine’ EcoRetreat is a, “glamping bed-and-breakfast” that allows guests to enjoy a remarkable stay on the Navajo Nation. Shash Dine’ EcoRetreat provides a unique opportunity to immerse yourself in nature, while still being able to sleep comfortably in homey Bell tents. Each tent is outfitted with beds, bathing accommodations, lanterns and games. Each site also has a fire pit where guests can cook s’mores and other treats.

The history of the land dates back to ancient times. Petroglyphs, arrow heads and shards of pottery can be found while hiking, remnants of days long past can still be seen in artifacts of local Dine, as well as in the old wagon trails littered with antique glass that glitter in the sun. Just make sure to leave them and preserve them for future generations.

Shash Dine' EcoRetreat offers cabins, tents and shepherd huts, which help create the perfect, "off-the-grid" lodging experience for every adventurer.

Raven's Nest Nature Sanctuary is a unique wilderness experience located in Patagonia that takes glamping to a whole new level. The secluded, Safari Tented Camp is nestled on a Nature Sanctuary near Patagonia Lake, and gives visitors the unique opportunity to engulf themselves in the surrounding nature, while also contributing to the health of the Ecosystems in the Sky Islands region. The camp itself has been designed specifically to minimize impacts on the lush and thriving wildlife.

At these Eco-lodges, guests can enjoy amazing luxuries in a generously-sized safari tent. Amenities include a comfortable queen bed, rustic lounging furniture, a Mesquite wood-fire stove, lighting, fans and two screen doors located at the opposite ends of tent. The site also features a private patio and outdoor deck area, which provides a perfect space to quite literally, sit back, and enjoy life! Each tent also has a bathroom suite, where the toilet and hot shower are both located.

The Raven’s Nest Nature Sanctuary not only offers luxurious lodging, but they also allow guests a unique opportunity to get up-close to nature in Patagonia. Visitors can bird watch, explore the Stone-Age village, stroll through the organic gardens and orchard, and hike along the nature trails located near the Eco-Lodge.

Cozy Peach

The Cozy Peach is a hotel ‘glamping’ concept from Schnepf Farms. While Schnepf Farms is a local-favorite for produce-picking and cozy, seasonal festivities, some people just can’t get enough of the lush and refreshing lot. The farm recently introduced The Cozy Peach, which satisfies the desires for all who have dreamt of spending more than just an afternoon at Schnepf Farms. The Cozy Peach features rentable travel trailers that are decked out in vibrant colors and retro décor. The best part: visitors can actually stay on the farm with their travel trailers and can experience Queen Creek like never before.

Whether you want to bask in the glory of their pristine pumpkin patch in the fall or you want priority-picking for their delicious peaches in the spring, this ‘glamping’ concept from Schnepf Farms is a charming and affordable alternative that is truly perfect for those who would rather escape the mundane resort, and enjoy one of the state’s most unique experiences.

Aramark at Lake Powell Resort

Through Aramark, at the Lake Powell Resort in Northern Arizona, weary travelers and eager visitors can now get a front-row seat to enjoying the magic and wonder of Northern Arizona and its breathtaking desert oasis, Lake Powell. The area is already noted as being a top destination for house-boating. Now with the addition of glamping options from Aramark, there's a way for everyone to bask in the glorious, southwestern sun and admire towering red rock buttes from their own backyard.

The properties at Lake Powell take reservations for the three respective Airstreams at each campground. The brand new 30-foot Airstream International Signature travel trailers are situated in premium, full hookup RV campsites at each location and offer the conveniences of home and indulgences of a boutique hotel, including luxurious linens and a pillow-top memory-foam mattress in the master bedroom for the ultimate night's sleep. Custom-designed features include natural wood flooring, top-of-the-line kitchen appliances; plush seating in the dinette and lounge is designed for extreme comfort and relaxation, with all the creature comforts of home including Samsung LED HD TVs, surround sound with subwoofer, and climate control systems.

At Lake Powell, glamping vacationers are in close proximity to lake activities including powerboat and personal watercraft rentals, hiking to iconic Horseshoe Bend or enjoying a boat tour of landmarks such as Rainbow Bridge and Antelope Canyon.

In addition to the eight 59' Wanderers that Aramark offers, houseboats are also available to rent, with each one decked out in luxurious décor and extra amenities. As well as the Wanderers, the company also features 12 pontoon boats – which can fit up to 12 people – and the 53' Adventurer and 46' Voyager houseboats, which offer a one-of-a-kind luxury, glamping experience. The new private luxury marina, Pier One 11, which is one of the lake's newest additions, also grants exclusive VIP amenities to visitors including barge, fuel and pump-out service; yearly membership for four to the Lake Powell National Golf Course; and transportation services like airport pick-up.
