

LITTLE JEWEL

PACHYPHYTUM COMPACTUM

Resembles a cut gemstone with angular facets left by the pressure of neighboring leaves that are a matte blue-green but can show tinges of violet when gently stressed by full sun

Water every 2 weeks as needed when soil is dry

Thrives in bright indoor light, filtered / partial sun

Propagates easily from stem cuttings and leaf propagation from any fallen leaves in shipping

Typically not toxic to pets