

One of the oldest Echeveria hybrids, it is a rosette succulent with flat, powdery blue-green leaves tipped in pink

Water when the soil is completely dry

Prefers partial sun to partial shade

Propagates by leaves and offshoots

Not typically toxic to pets