

MOUNT EVEREST

CURIO (SENECIO) FICOIDES

An attractive succulent with upright stems that bear thick fleshy blue-green covered with a waxy coating

Water when soil is dry, or when leaves start to look wrinkled

Prefers full sun to partial shade

Propagates very easily by leaf cuttings or offshoots

Can be toxic