

STAR CACTUS

HAWORTHIA RETUSA

A cute, slow-growing succulent with thick, pointed leaves that grow small white flowers in late spring and early summer

Water when soil is completely dry

Prefers bright, indirect light. Can sunburn easily so avoid direct light

Propagates easily from its many offshoots

Typically not toxic