

Dear Colleagues:

It is my pleasure to invite you to the 2012 Appalachian Swing. The swing will consist of two one-day tournaments held on the campus of Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. On Saturday, January 28th the OU Forensics Team will host the 2012 Interstate Individual Events Tournament; the Alumni of OU Forensics will host their Fifth Annual Alumni Tournament on Sunday, January 29th.

We are pleased to welcome our Alumni back to Athens for this fun-filled forensics weekend. An Alumni/Judges/Coaches lounge will be available on Saturday and Sunday providing a space for people to relax and reconnect.

Dr. Susan Millsap will be heading up debate tab and OU Associate Director of Forensics, Prof. Mark Kokoska will be in charge of the IE tab room. We welcome back OU Assistant Director of Admissions, Tony Sylvester as our Alumni Assistant Tournament Director.

The tournament begins on Friday with 4 preliminary rounds and outrounds of open competition in Parliamentary Debate and College Public Forum. Both of these events conclude on Friday evening.

On Saturday and Sunday, the tournament will offer Open and JV divisions in all IEs as well as an open division of LD. For this tournament, “JV” is defined as first or second year in college forensics. Each tournament will offer two rounds and finals in all Open IE divisions and 3 rounds with no final rounds in all JV divisions. Additionally, each tournament will offer four rounds of LD, as well as an appropriate number of elimination rounds.

On top of all of that, we will be concurrently hosting the Ohio Forensics Association Novice State Championships on Friday and Saturday. Judge pools for both tournaments will be merged and a joint awards ceremony will be held on Saturday night.

Since we are hosting 3 tournaments on the same weekend, please note the following: THERE WILL BE A $25 PER SLOT DROP CHARGE FOR SLOTS DROPPED BETWEEN SATURDAY AND SUNDAY. In the past, we have allowed those changes at no charge, however, for the past two years we have had to start over rescheduling the tournament on Saturday night due to the number of drops.

You will find all of the necessary tournament information enclosed in this invitation, including a tournament schedule, event rules, lodging and entry information. We look forward to seeing you here in Athens in January.

If you have questions about the tournament please contact Dan West at 740-593-9962 or email westd1@ohio.edu.

Respectfully,

College Public Forum

1. Philosophy: Public Forum focuses on advocacy of a position derived from the issues presented in the resolution. Competitors in this team event advocate or reject a position posed by a resolution (prepared by the College Public Forum committee and distributed via the IE-L). The clash of idea must be communicated in a manner persuasive to the non-specialist or “citizen judge”, i.e. a member of the American jury. Public Forum should:

- a. Display solid logic, lucid reasoning, and depth of analysis.
- b. Utilize evidence without being driven by it.
- c. Present a clash of ideas by countering/refuting arguments of the opposing team (rebuttal)
- d. Communicate ideas with civility, clarity, organization, eloquence, and professional decorum.

This is not a debate event, per se, and as such, teams do not have prime facie burdens or the burden of rejoinder. Instead, teams are asked to advocate for (pro) or against (con) the ideas and policies represented within the resolution.

Since this is not a debate event, in the traditional sense, teams are prohibited from utilizing plans (formalized comprehensive proposals for implementation), counterplans and kritiks (off-topic arguments). Multiple competitive venues exist for the application of these argumentative strategies.

2. Resolutions: Resolutions will be distributed four times in this inaugural year. Topics will be announced on the IE-L.
 - a. Sept 17 for tournaments Oct 1-31.
 - b. Oct 25 for tournaments Nov 5-Dec 5.
 - c. Jan 7 for tournaments Jan 14-Feb 21
 - d. Feb 11 for the National Tournament, Feb 25 at Butler University in Indianapolis, IN.
3. Procedure and order of speeches: Prior to EVERY round and in the presence of the judge(s), a coin is tossed by one team and called by the other team. The team that wins the flip may choose one of two options: EITHER the SIDE of the topic they wish to defend (pro or con) OR the SPEAKING POSITION they wish to have (begin the debate or end the debate). The remaining option (SIDE OR SPEAKING POSITION) is the choice of the team that loses the flip. Once speaking positions and sides have been determined, the debate begins (the con team may lead, depending on the coin flip results). Note: The round begins at the conclusion of the coin flip/sides/positions discussion. Contestants may not leave the room or consult with coaches after the coin flip, which begins the round.
 - a. First Speaker – Team A 5 minutes
 - b. First Speaker – Team B 5 minutes
 - c. Crossfire (first question by speaker A1) 3 minutes
 - d. Second Speaker – Team A 5 minutes
 - e. Second Speaker – Team B 5 minutes

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| f. Crossfire (first question by A2) | 3 minutes |
| g. Summary – First Speaker – Team A | 3 minutes |
| h. Summary – First Speaker – Team B | 3 minutes |
| i. Closing Arguments – Second Speaker – Team A | 3 minutes |
| j. Closing Arguments – Second Speaker – Team B | 3 minutes |
| k. Prep Time | 2 minutes per team |

4. Timing: Judges and/or debaters should keep track of speaking time.
5. Plans/Counterplans: In College Public Forum, neither side is permitted to offer a plan nor a counterplan (formalized comprehensive proposal for implementation). Instead, each team should offer reasoning to support a position of advocacy. Debaters may offer generalized, practical solutions.
6. Oral Critiques: No debate ballot may be turned in without a reason for decision. Oral commentary is not considered a substitute for the written ballot. CPF and the ICFL discourage judges from disclosing decisions in preliminary rounds of competition. The ballot serves as a valuable educational tool to the teams and their coaches. Comments made by a judge (orally or written) should be constructive and professional.
7. Judges: The use of community judges is strongly encouraged.
8. Governance: College Public Forum is sponsored by the Intercollegiate Forensics League (ICFL) and all matters not covered in this description will be clarified by the ICFL committee.
9. National Tournament and Qualifications: Each school in attendance at the College Public Forum National Tournament will be allowed to enter two at-large teams. All additional entries from each school must qualify for the national tournament by being ranked in the top half of teams (with no more than 8 qualifications at any tournament) at a sanctioned Public Forum Tournament during the regular season.
10. Sanctioning: All College Public Forum participants are encouraged to be active members of this new forensics community and any and all suggestions and concerns should be directed to the ICFL committee. All College Public Forum tournaments must use the appropriate resolution and must be sanctioned by the ICFL. Sanctioning is available to all schools at the fee of $1 per team College Public Forum Team entered into competition. To receive sanctioning, a tournament must:
 - a. Have a minimum of three schools competing in public forum
 - b. Have a minimum of 4 teams in attendance.
 - c. Hold a minimum of 4 rounds of competition.
 - d. Use the appropriate CPF topic.
 - e. Submit a completed sanctioning form (attached)

- f. Submit a complete set of tournament results (prelim rounds as well as a completed elim bracket, clearly identifying first and last names as well as school affiliations of all competitors).
- g. Pay the sanctioning fee.
- h. NOTE: Any school in attendance may complete the sanctioning process for a tournament.
