

Dear Colleague:

Southwestern College is pleased to invite your team to the 14th annual Southwestern Invitational. The Southwestern Invitational is an IE-only tournament and the first half of a swing with the Sunset Cliffs Classic at Point Loma Nazarene University. The Southwestern Invitational offers IE competitors a full tournament experience immediately preceding the Sunset Cliffs. The date of the Southwestern Invitational is Friday, February 1st, 2013.

The Southwestern Invitational offers all 11 individual events in both Open and Novice divisions. Two preliminary rounds of competition will be offered with a single break to Finals. Double entry is permitted in both patterns. Due to tight scheduling, triple entry will not be allowed.

Reasons to consider competing at the Southwestern Invitational:

- IE competitors attending the Sunset Cliffs Classic get an additional day of tournament competition.
- Competitors have another chance to earn legs for Nationals.
- We have a novice division and won't collapse open and novice unless absolutely necessary.
- Great tasting snacks.
- Swing Sweepstakes awards available to schools participating in both the Southwestern and Point Loma tournaments.
- Sweepstakes awards for both two-year and four-year schools.

We hope to see you and your team on Friday, February 1, 2013.
