Platform Policy

This policy is given with the intent to create standardized requirements for those who are tasked with leading the congregation from the platform.

Men:

- ▪ teams are required to meet the following guidelines:
  - Must wear dress slacks (no denim, casual, or work style pants) with a long sleeve dress shirt with a tie.
  - team members must wear a suit or sports coat when ministering.
- ▪ Hair must be short, conservative, and respectful. - Hair should be a person's natural color.
- ▪ No Facial hair.
- Tattoos must be covered when on platform.
- Hats are never to be worn on CLC platform.
- Dress shoes and socks are to be worn.
- ▪ All clothing is to be modest, not tight or form-fitting, and should be masculine in appearance. Apparel should be conformed to the teachings/preaching of Pastor Haney.

Women:

- Dressy suits, dresses or skirt/blouse ensembles must be worn (no denim). All clothing must be modest.
- CLC, we define modest as:
  - No tight fitting or form fitting clothing.
  - Dresses and skirts must cover knees when seated.
  - Sleeves are to be a minimum of 3/4 length (between elbow and the wrist)
- Necklines must be modest (within one inch of the center collarbone)

- Hair must be uncut, conservative, and respectful.
- Hair should be a person's natural color.
- No ornamental jewelry is allowed (wedding rings, brooches, and watches are accepted).
- Dress shoes are required (no sandals, flip-flops, slippers, etc.).
- Make-up is not allowed
  - This includes eye shadow, eyeliner, mascara, blush, lipstick, and colored nail polish.
  - The face is to be natural in appearance.
- All clothing is to be modest. No tight or form-fitting pieces, it should be feminine in appearance and conform to the teachings/preaching of Pastor Haney.

While this policy is designed to address platform conduct, all CLC members who minister on the platform must abide by the set lifestyle requirements. Should you require more information on these lifestyle requirements, please contact Music Director Kailah Puentes to discuss further.
