

With fall and winter fast approaching, bears are not the only ones that hibernate. Outdoor irrigation hibernates too. Get a head start on the season by reducing the time or turning off your sprinklers.

