78	6/15/20	Sandra Short	I was in an accident on May 26, 2020 between 3:30 and 4pm. It was almost 3:45 approx. I was stopped at the red left turning light on westbound Fair Drive - getting ready to turn onto southbound Fairview Road. There was one car - a white van also stopped in front of me. Suddenly, the white van in front of me backed up and hit my car [a little brown Buick Encore crossover]. The driver and passenger got out. I asked them why they backed up? They stated that they realized that they needed to turn right onto Fairview and not left, so they backed up in order to switch to the right lane. We stood between our cars exchanging info for a few min. My 88 year old dad and I are not hurt, but my insurance company tells me that the people in the van disputed the claim. So I'm looking for video - even blurry.	6/18/20
