NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Created by CalHR / 11/24

5A. Presentation of Native American Heritage Month Proclamation by Community Affairs Committee

The Committee is honoring Mabelle Drake Hueston in recognition of her longstanding contributions to Native American education, cultural preservation, and community service. Appointed to the University of California Board of Regents in May 2026, Hueston has dedicated her career to advancing education and preserving Native American heritage. She currently serves as President and Executive Director of Nihizaad Nízhoní, an organization supporting and preserving the Diné language in her home community of Naatsis'aan in Southern Utah. Her commitment to education and cultural preservation is reflected in her decades of service as an educator and Navajo language instructor, including nearly 26 years at California State University, Long Beach, and her work with the Southern California Indian Center. Through her leadership, educational programs, and community involvement, she continues to promote Native American traditions, strengthen cultural connections, and inspire future generations. Her recognition during Native American Heritage Month celebrates her lasting contributions to education, cultural preservation, and the communities she serves.

11A. Presentation of the 2027 Budget and Vote on Whether or Not to Approve

The Financial Monitoring and Audit Committee hosted a public budget study session on November 12, 2026 at which staff presented a draft of the 2027 operating budget.

Staff will present the draft 2027 budget, along with the committee's recommendations, to the full Board for discussion and vote on whether or not to approve.

Budget Development Process

- Fiscal year runs January through December
- Budgets are created annually for each department and then consolidated into an organization-wide budget
- The 52 departmental budgets are directly overseen by 17 management staff
- Through monthly variance reports and oversight by the Financial Monitoring and Audit Committee, each department's budget is closely monitored. The Board, staff and public receive regular updates

Budget Development Process

- OCFEC is an Enterprise Fund.
  - Self-Sustaining for operations, capital expenses, future improvements
- OC Fair Operating Revenues provide majority of income (80%)
- Non Fair Revenue adds value (20%)
  - Funds fair operations
  - Funds year round programs
  - Funds year round operations
  - Funds capital projects

Budget Development Process

Guiding Budget Principals

- Continue to grow and improve the OC Fair by expanding programs, education opportunities, and enriching experiences while maximizing revenue and managing expenses
- Grow and expand our year round event programming by maximizing the use of our facilities to attract diverse entertainment, special events and community programming
- Perform our fiduciary and public venue management and oversight roles to maintain financial performance, operational excellence and long-term viability of the venues and programs

Economic Factors Affecting 2027 Budget

- Slow, but still positive:
  - Real GDP growth is expected to be around 2.4%
  - Federal reserve increases projected 1/4 – 1/2 Point
  - Consumer confidence shows discretionary spending up 2.4%
  - Disposable income up 2.1%
  - Inflation at 3 - 3.5%
  - Household Debt increasing
  - Job growth relatively low
  - Significant investment in data centers, AI infrastructure continues
- The local OC forecast:
  - Generally mirrors the overall U.S. forecast
  - Continued static job market; unemployment expected to rise to 4.3% from 4.1% in 2026
  - Housing affordability Challenge. 14% pay more than half of income on housing.
  - OCBX: 70.2 (optimistic) about the near-term outlook compared to 66.0 in 1st quarter
  - Potential Impacts from El Nino

Budget Assumptions for 2027

- Maintain controlled attendance model
  - Utilizing data and ticket scan analysis for real-time visitor traffic
- 45 shows in the Pacific Amphitheatre
- No new civil service headcounts
  - 8 position reclassifications
- Transition to cashless for Admission and Parking sales
