

Dear Parents:

This Thursday we had a school Living Rosary and it was a beautiful and powerful event. The entire rosary was made up of our student body. The students did a wonderful job and it is definitely something we will continue to do in the future. With Veterans' Day taking place on the same day, we can thank all of our veterans for their sacrifices that allow to be able to have a Catholic school and celebrate our faith.

We will be having our Thanksgiving School Mass on Tuesday, the 23rd, at 8:30 a.m. This is our last school day before Thanksgiving Break. We will do doing some "Thankful Readings" at that Mass. I have asked all of the teachers to have their classes write a sentence (for the younger grades) or a paragraph (for the older grades) about something they are sincerely thankful for. We will be picking a few of those to be read at that Mass.

God Bless!

Mr. Detzel

5 Ways to say “Thank you” during Thanksgiving Break

1. Volunteer to help make the holiday brighter for someone less fortunate.
2. Extend an invitation to someone who would welcome the company.
3. Make an extra meal to share this Thanksgiving season.
4. Make a donation.
5. Visit a nursing home or hospital.
