Food for Thought for the week of June 11, 2023

1. As we've journeyed through our sermon series in the Gospel of John, we've seen John continually focus on who Jesus is more than on what Jesus did. In this week's message, we saw how Jesus as the Good Shepherd is different from other religions, beliefs or ideas we or others may have about who God is. To help us deepen our understanding of God, we can turn to the Psalms.

Psalm 103 New International Version (NIV)

Praise the LORD, my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name.² Praise the LORD, my soul, and forget not all his benefits—³ who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases,⁴ who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion,⁵ who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.⁶ The LORD works righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.⁷ He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the people of Israel:⁸ The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love.⁹ He will not always accuse, nor will he harbor his anger forever;¹⁰ he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.¹¹ For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him;¹² as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.¹³ As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him;¹⁴ for he knows how we are formed, he remembers that we are dust.¹⁵ The life of mortals is like grass, they flourish like a flower of the field;¹⁶ the wind blows over it and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more.¹⁷ But from everlasting to everlasting the LORD's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children—¹⁸ with those who keep his covenant and remember to obey his precepts.¹⁹ The LORD has established his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules over all.²⁰ Praise the LORD, you his angels, you mighty ones who do his bidding, who obey his word.²¹ Praise the LORD, all his heavenly hosts, you his servants who do his will.²² Praise the LORD, all his works everywhere in his dominion. Praise the LORD, my soul.

As you read Psalm 103, what stands out as a:

truth about God that encourages you?

fact about God you sometimes forget?

promise of God you want to remember?

reason to praise God for who He is?

reason to thank God for what He has done for you?

2. In his message, Chris highlighted 16 teachings that Jesus gave about Himself in the first 10 chapters of John. From the list provided, which teaching has been a difference maker for your understanding of who Jesus is?

As you review this list, can you think of someone in your life you could encourage this week by sharing one of these teachings with them?
