DISCUSSION GUIDE

These questions are designed to help groups discuss the weekend teaching while building relationships with each other and applying God's Word to our lives.

WARM UP

1. Larry recognized that sometimes the Christian life can feel like we're a five-year-old kid waiting for Christmas. Think back to Christmas morning as a kid — what were you like? Did you wake your parents early? Try to peek at presents?

2. This weekend's message focused a lot on expectations. When facing new situations, do you tend to expect the best or brace for the worst?

3. Was there anything that stood out to you that was especially encouraging in this week's message?

KNOW IT

1. Jesus didn't fit the expectations of most people in His day, including John the Baptist. Read Isaiah 11:1-10. What stands out to you about the kind of King or Savior this passage describes? How might that have shaped what the Jewish people were expecting?

2. Re-read Matthew 11:1-15 from this weekend (and optionally Mark 1:1-11 for context). Why do you think even someone like John the Baptist struggled to recognize Jesus for who He was?

SHARE IT

1. Larry called Jesus a "wild man." What are three of the most surprising or "wild" things about Jesus to you?

2. We learned five things we can expect when God is at work. Which one tends to be the hardest for you to trust or accept, and why? Share an example when this felt true or challenging for you.

LIVE IT

1. When it feels like God is confusing, slow, or going off the script you think He should follow, what helps you trust Him?

2. This message was about our expectations of God, and this series is about the "art of surrender." What's one area of your life where you need to trade your expectations for trust or surrender this week?
