

How Can God Be So Unfair?

The story we can't afford to misunderstand:

Matthew 20:1-19, Luke 15:25-32, 23:42-43, Romans 8:32, 9:15-16, Ephesians 2:8-9
Different Rewards in Heaven: Matthew 5:19, 6:19-21, 1 Corinthians 3:12-15, Revelation 22:12

Grace is a result of who _____ and what He _____, not who _____ and what we _____.

God will never be less than _____ but has the right to be more than _____.

This story doesn't teach that all of our _____ will be the same; it just kills the idea that we _____ them.

How to kill the sin of comparison:

Matthew 20:1-19

The right response to this story is living a life full of _____ and _____.

We need to be people who:

_____ God's grace.

_____ God's grace in our lives.

_____ God's grace.

_____ God's grace in others.

How Can God Be So Unfair?

The story we can't afford to misunderstand:

Matthew 20:1-19, Luke 15:25-32, 23:42-43, Romans 8:32, 9:15-16, Ephesians 2:8-9
Different Rewards in Heaven: Matthew 5:19, 6:19-21, 1 Corinthians 3:12-15, Revelation 22:12

Grace is a result of who GOD IS and what He HAS DONE, not who WE ARE and what we HAVE DONE.

God will never be less than FAIR but has the right to be more than FAIR.

This story doesn't teach that all of our REWARDS will be the same; it just kills the idea that we DESERVE them.

How to kill the sin of comparison:

Matthew 20:1-19

The right response to this story is living a life full of GRATITUDE and GENEROSITY.

We need to be people who:

ACCEPT God's grace.

CELEBRATE God's grace in our lives.

SHARE God's grace.

CELEBRATE God's grace in others.
