PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Purpose of the Outreach Certification Program

This program has been designed to provide qualified trainers with a reliable means of assisting clients to obtain certification through a credible service dog training program. Trainers accepted into our network are those who have demonstrated proficiency in assessing a teams meet the standards for public access that are accepted within the broader service dog community. Note that the emphasis is placed on the team, as it is the team that is being certified, not just the dog. Though not required by law, team certification is beneficial in many cases.

At the present time there are not many options for certification that are available to teams that are privately trained. Thus, private trainers who labor to ensure that these teams receive appropriate training are left with no means of helping those same teams gain credibility. Historically, certification has been available to program trained teams. Though there are an increasing, indeed alarming, number of websites that advertise that they will provide certification papers to a service dog (SD) team sight unseen for a fee. We do not believe this to be a desirable situation. This provides no assurance to the public that the teams are indeed safe and in keeping with established standards of SD behavior, nor does it provide the handler with the education necessary to be effective team leaders. Training for both team members, as well as in-person evaluation and testing are the hallmarks of our program.

Privately trained does not imply that the SD team is poorly trained and not deserving of certification. We recognize the hard work that many private trainers put into training their clients and have established this program to provide these trainers an avenue to properly certify well-trained and deserving SD teams. By building a network of competent and well-trained Evaluators and teams, we hope to provide both SD teams and the public with increased confidence.

The vision of the Foundation for Service Dog Support, Inc. (FSDS) is a SD friendly community, absent discrimination, where team members may go forth in confidence and enjoy a quality of life. Welcome to the Foundation for Service Dog Support, Inc.

Breed Restrictions

Due to insurance regulations, we are unable to certify teams with the following breeds of dog:

Pit Bull
Doberman Pinscher
Rottweiler
Staffordshire Terriers

There are no exceptions to this rule.

Pathway to Success

Certification is a process, and the steps to becoming a FSDS Certified Team are as follows:

1. Submit the application packet
2. Successfully complete the SD 101: Orientation Course
3. Receive a test ticket
4. Successfully pass the CSD Skill Test
5. Submit your proof of passing form, signed by your evaluator
6. Receive your ID badge and program certification vest

SD 101: Orientation Course

Beginning June 2015, all handlers will be required to complete a comprehensive online training course. This training will ensure standardization of education between those teams certified through our in-house program, and those teams certified through our Outreach Program. This course is the equivalent of a 3 credit college course and provides the handler with training on a variety of topics including but not limited to SD laws, public access issues, wellness care, first aid, basic anatomy and preparing your team for special situations in the community. The course fee covers the cost of qualified teaching staff and course maintenance.

Evaluators who wish to take this course are welcome to do so, but this is not a requirement. If you work with service dog teams on a frequent basis, it is recommended. There is a cost of $250 for the training, and interested candidates may contact the FSDS directly for further information.

Behavioral Expectations

It is our expectation that all communications will be accomplished in a positive manner, demonstrating respect for all other parties. Your behavior reflects not only upon yourself, but for all FSDS Evaluators, certified teams and for the FSDS as an organization. It is our expectation that all teams will serve as ambassadors of good will for the service dog community.

The FSDS maintains ZERO TOLERANCE for all of the following:

- Illicit substance abuse
- Discrimination based on gender, ethnicity, religion, sexual preference or disability
- Bullying behavior

Violation of our zero tolerance policy is grounds for immediate dismissal from the program. If you are dismissed from the program for violation of zero tolerance, any monies paid to date will be non-refundable.

Requests for Financial Assistance

The FSDS has established criteria for financial assistance for teams in need. In the event that you are approached by a client who is unable to afford the cost of the SD 101 Orientation Course, please instruct them to submit a request for financial assistance to the FSDS. They will be required to complete a financial inventory form along with their application packet. The financial inventory form is available upon request. The fee for the actual certification test is not payable to the FSDS; this is payable directly to the Evaluator on the day of testing. As such, we are unable to provide assistance with this expense.

Re-Testing Rules

We recognize that any team can be affected by nerves, and we all have an occasional bad day. In the event that you must issue a deficiency on the first CSD test, the team is allowed one more opportunity to re-take the test. They must wait a minimum of 3 months before you will be able to re-test, to allow you time to address any areas that are in need of remediation. We strongly suggest that for any deficient team, you attempt to work out some remediation sessions to help maximize their potential for success in the future. Any team that fails the test a second time will not be allowed to re-take the test with their current dog. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Your decisions as an Evaluator are final. The FSDS Administration will not intervene and overturn the decision of any Evaluator.

Liability Disclaimer

Upon passing the SD Test, the evaluator, on behalf of the FSDS certifies that at the time of the test the SD team met all standards for certification. In no way does this constitute a guarantee that the team will function flawlessly at all times in the future. The Evaluator and the FSDS are not responsible for any problems that occur while the team is working in public. The handler is solely responsible at all times for any damages caused by the SD to persons, property, premises and/or facilities. Team certification must be renewed every three years.

The FSDS reserves the right to revoke certification if at any time a SD team is found to have posed a threat to the public or if the SD team fails to conform to the published Code of Conduct. The FSDS will investigate all complaints prior to making a final determination. All decisions will be final.

This includes but is not limited to students, volunteers, staff and Board members. The standards are not intended to be a substitute for common sense and adherence to expected societal norms for morals and ethics. They represent a framework for rules and regulations. Conflict of interest

SD Evaluators should not enter into any testing agreement when a conflict of interest exists. Examples of a conflict of interest include, but are not limited to any of the following:

Upon completion of the test, the SD Evaluator should ensure that the following forms are all completed:

1. SD Certification Test Form
2. Proof of Passing Form for those teams who successfully pass the test.
3. Notice of Deficiency Form for those teams who demonstrate deficiencies
4. Notice of Failure for those teams who fail to achieve a passing score after their second attempt.

PLEASE ensure that all parts of the forms are completed. Incomplete forms will be returned to the Evaluator for completion.

The evaluator is required to return the original copy of the SD certification test to the FSDS. Any other forms should be given to the test candidate.

Revocation of SD Evaluator Status

The FSDS reserves the right to revoke the SD Evaluator status for any individual who fails to comply with the published guidelines. Any complaints that are received will be investigated to the fullest extent possible prior to making a final determination. If the complaints are found to be warranted, the FSDS may elect to either offer remediation or revoke the certification, depending on the severity of the complaint. In the case of revocation, any and all fees paid to date will be non-refundable. The decisions of the FSDS will be final.

REQUIREMENT FOR SD TEAMS

Eligibility Requirements for SD Teams

In order to qualify for a team to take the CSD Test, the dog must:

10. Portable bowl and fresh cold water

Note: Items 1-3 are submitted directly to FSDS upon application and do not need to be reviewed by Evaluator on test day.

Receiving An ID Badge and Vest

Upon successful completion of the CSD Test, please provide your client with a signed Proof of Passing Form. Instruct them to fill out the form, and then send the signed form and a check for $75 (U.S. funds) to cover the cost of the vest, ID badge and shipping/handling charges, together in the same envelope to the address listed on the form. They should allow 6-8 weeks for delivery. Please recommend that they keep a copy of the Proof of Passing Form for their records, in the event that any questions regarding certification arise while they are awaiting arrival of their vest and certificate. FSDS certified teams are required to wear their program issued vest at all times when working in public. The certification will be valid for 3 years from the date of issue. All teams are required to re-take the test every 3 years to renew their certification. Teams are also required to provide ongoing proof of current county license and vaccinations no later than the anniversary of their certification. We recommend that you maintain records of these teams and test dates, and re-contact them in three years at least 3 months prior to their expiration date so that you may perform the re-test. Other materials must be provided directly to the fSDS.

All Evaluators should be aware that if at any time the FSDS is made aware of any incidences where a certified SD team has presented a threat to the community, or has engaged in any other inappropriate behaviors, the FSDS will investigate the matter. If, after investigation, it is determined that the SD team has failed to conform to the published Code of Conduct, then the certification will be revoked and the handler will be required to return the vest. Any fees paid will be non-refundable.

TEST ADMINISTRATION

Fee Schedule

SD Evaluators are responsible for collecting testing fees from candidates at the time of the test. You are allowed to charge up to a maximum of $50 for each test. The SD Evaluator may, at their own discretion, elect to charge less. We strongly recommend that you collect the testing fee PRIOR to the start of the test. Test candidates are informed in advance, that the fees are non-refundable. In the event that they are granted financial assistance, they will present you with a payment voucher. You must mail the voucher to the FSDS with the completed test for reimbursement. The client is responsible for the difference.

Selecting A Test Location

You must select a location that offers exposure to food displays, aisles of merchandise and a sit down eating area. If you do not have a second dog, you will need to locate an area where other dogs are likely to be, such as a pet store or a retail store such as a pet retail business that allow pets in their store. A strip mall that contains a pet store, restaurant and retail stores is acceptable. Similarly, a Super Walmart or other such similar store is also acceptable. At no time should any Evaluator be alone with a client in a private home or other such setting.

Providing Positive Feedback Upon Test Completion

It is important to provide positive feedback and reassurance at the end of the test. We recommend that upon completion, the team and the evaluator sit together to discuss the test.

In the event that the team has passed the test, the evaluator will review all test station scores. It is important to acknowledge all the positive things that have happened, and gently make suggestions for any areas that demonstrate room for improvement.

In the event that a team has failed the test, it is important to reassure them and encourage them to correct any deficiencies. It is recommended that you start the conversation by noting all of the areas that the team has mastered and emphasizing the positives. When approaching the areas in need of improvement, it is helpful to offer constructive suggestions on how to improve in those areas. Emphasize that certification is still possible and help focus the team on concrete things that they can do to become successful. Rather than stating, "You have failed the test", it may be better to say, "You have done a really good job with most of these stations, what a great dog you have. It is obvious you have worked very hard and you seem to have a good relationship with each other. You are to be congratulated for this. Let me offer you some suggestions on how to correct these few areas so that you can succeed on your next test".

A caring and encouraging response from you will offer the team the reassurance that they need to return in the future and complete their certification.

Tips for Test Administration

PART ONE: Demographics

Evaluator Information

Name and ID#: Please print your name clearly and do not forget to include your Evaluator ID#, this can be found on your name badge. We will keep records of the evaluations that you have completed by ID#, so this is important for record keeping purposes. Be sure to note the attempt number for the test. A team is allowed up to 2 attempts to pass the test.

Location of Test: Clearly indicate the location where the test was administered, for example:

The Walmart Superstore at Union Hills and 83rd Ave

Be certain to select a test location that has packaged food for sale, department store aisles and an eating area. Examples of such stores are malls with food specialty stores, department stores and a food court; Super Walmart; Super Target; strip malls with all of the types of stores required; or other such similar settings.

Be sure to include the City, State and Zip Code. Please do not leave the Zip Codes blank, we are tracking them for statistical purposes.

SD Team Information

Handler is the name of the person who has applied to take the test. Please list their mailing address. If this differs from the street address, we only need the mailing address so that we will be able to mail them information once they have passed the test.

Dog: Please complete all information requested for the dog. The dog must have ALL of the following in order to be allowed to take the test:

1. Current license tag worn on the collar
2. Identification tag on collar with name and phone number
3. Non-retractable leash, no longer than 6 feet in length
4. Properly fitted working boots

The FSDS will issue vests to individuals who successfully pass the SD Evaluation Test.

PART TWO: Testing Information

Type of service work: Please note that this test is not designed to certify guide dogs for the blind. The types of skills that a guide dog is required to perform are outside of the scope of this test. IF the individual has multiple disabilities and has cross trained the dog to perform more than one type of service work, then please indicate which types of service work the dog is being tested for. Note that in these cases, when you get to Station 12: Service Related Tasks, you must select at least one task for each type of service work that you have checked.

Equipment: It is important that a working dog have equipment that is properly fitted and in good repair. Failure to provide the dog with proper equipment can result in injury to the dog. You are required to check ALL boxes in this section. Even if the equipment is only a collar and leash, all dogs have equipment. For purse dogs please check to ensure that the purse is in good repair and that the straps of the purse are well secured. A few caveats:

- Retractable leashes are not allowed, they do not conform to leash laws in the majority of States; furthermore, a 15 foot lead does not allow for good control of the dog in a public place.
- The dog must have a name tag with a phone number, in the event that the dog and person are separated due to illness or injury.
- All dogs must show they will tolerate wearing working boots should the climate or terrain warrant them.

Scoring System: Please familiarize yourself in advance with the scoring system.

Note that two criteria must be met in order to award a passing score on this test.

1. The SD team must achieve a combined score of at least 78 points; AND
2. Any dog who demonstrates aggression towards another dog or a person, or who defecates or urinates inappropriately in public will automatically fail the test. The dog may show curiosity towards another dog, but any instances of growling, barking, snapping, barking aggressively or lunging constitutes aggression.

It is important that you adhere to this rule. At any time, a SD may encounter another team while working in public. It is not acceptable to certify an aggressive dog, and potentially place a second team in jeopardy at a future encounter.

The handler is given up to three times to correct the dog on any station before they are considered to fail the station. This will account for nerves or unusual circumstances that may be encountered. You may want to review the rules with the handler prior to beginning the test to reassure them of this, and then go back to the car and start the testing.

General Rule of Thumb

A SD should remain within 2 feet of the handler at all times when in public. The only exception to this rule will be if the SD is required to complete a task that necessitates the dog to temporarily be at a greater distance.

PART THREE: Tips For Scoring The Stations

Station 1: Controlled unload from vehicle. Note that the dog must be on leash during the unload. Any dog who is unloaded off leash will not pass this station. Leash laws require that a dog is on a leash at all times when not in a fenced area. Unloading a dog off leash in a parking lot is dangerous.

Station 2: Greeting an unfamiliar dog. If you are partnered with a SD, you may solicit the participation of your dog for this part of the test. If not you must arrange to have another dog present. Unless the second dog is a SD, this portion of the test must be done outside of the public place, in the parking lot. If the dog successfully completes this station, but later on during the test shows aggression towards another dog, an automatic failure will occur. Any evidence of aggression during the test results in an automatic failure, with NO EXCEPTIONS.

Station 3: Walking from the car into the building. You are checking to see that the dog does not pull on the leash or show fear of normal parking lot noises. The dog should be focused on working and not exploring the parking lot.

Station 4: Controlled entry into the building. The dog should walk quietly besides the handler and make no attempt to explore or solicit attention from passer-bys. The dog should also show no fear of overhead blowers, automatic doors, metal grates on the floor or other types of uneven surfaces.

Station 5: Walking through the building. The dog should remain in a heel. Please be attentive to how the handler addresses any attempts by the public to pet the dog while s/he is working. Petting should not be allowed during a testing situation, other than as a part of the test on Station 11. The dog should not sniff the displays or nibble on merchandise! Be attentive to how the handler monitors the behavior of the dog while in the store.

Station 6: Walking past food displays. It is suggested that you walk past the meat counter as well as the bakery section to test this station. These are areas where the dogs are more likely to be tempted. Walking down the pet food aisle is also recommended.

Station 7: Off lead. This is done in a controlled manner. Please do not select the busiest place in the store to conduct this portion of the test, because the public sometimes takes this as a sign that they may pet the dog and this would not be acceptable. We recommend that you walk behind the team so that you can evaluate the performance. This should be done spontaneously, at some point during the test simply instruct the handler to “drop the leash” and continue to talk. Allow them to walk about 10 feet, then instruct the handler to take the leash again. You are checking to see that the dog remains besides the handler. If the dog strays evaluate how the handler responds to this, and whether or not they can get the dog to resume the heel within 3 commands.

Station 8: Six foot recall. This is another station where you will want to wait for a quiet aisle in the store. You may want to stand behind the team a few feet in order to prevent anyone from trying to step over the dog while they are in a sit. Have the handler put the dog in a sit/stay at the end of the aisle, and then walk about 6 feet forwards. After 10 seconds, tell the handler to call the dog. The dog should go straight to the handler and not make any attempts to sniff the merchandise along the way. The handler is given up to three chances to redirect the dog if needed.

Station 9: Sit on command. This will be done two times. We suggest that you bring some food in a plastic bag for this part of the test. Give the handler advance notice of what you are doing.

The first time, instruct the handler to put the dog in a sit, then drop the food on the floor next to the dog. The handler must instruct the dog to “leave it”, and the dog should remain seated.

The second time, you should solicit help from another shopper. Have the handler place the dog in a sit by their side, then have another person pass by the team with a shopping cart. The dog should remain seated.

Station 10: Down on command. The handler should put the dog in a down/stay (not seated). You should step over the dog in each direction, and the dog should remain in a down. If you have a disability and are not able to step over the dog, you may solicit the assistance of another ADULT (not a child) for this portion of the test.

Station 11: Greeting a friendly stranger. Please select two strangers at random, one adult and one well mannered child. Make sure that in the case of the child that the parent is there to give their permission for the child to participate in the test. Have the handler place the dog in a sit/stay and then give the strangers permission, one at a time to greet the dog. The dog should remain in a sit/stay during this portion of the test. Make sure that in the case of the child, you give instructions on HOW to greet, children tend to try to hug the dogs. A simple pat on the head or shaking of the paw is all that is required.

Station 12: Service related tasks. Refer back to type of service work. The handler must select at least one task that is appropriate for each type of service work that the dog has been trained to do. See also the section of the manual on acceptable tasks for service dogs. Note that the list includes but does not limit the individual to tasks on the lists. The ADI requires that a SD must be able to complete at least 3 service related tasks. There is no requirement that any one particular task is included, it is up to the discretion of the individual. This is an area where common sense and good judgment must prevail. The tasks selected will be based on the particular disabilities of the individual. Be specific when you list the tasks. Evaluate and score each task separately.

Station 13: Noise distraction. We recommend that you walk behind the team and do not give advance warning for this portion of the test. At some point, preferably when you are an aisle that is not too busy, please drop an object (such as your clipboard) on the floor behind the dog. We suggest that you do not use merchandise from off the shelves, because if you damage the merchandise you may be required to pay for it! Drop the object on the floor, and see how the dog reacts to the noise. They are allowed to turn and show interest, but not jump or pull on the leash, bark or show fear. The handler has up to three times to redirect the dog, if necessary, before they will be failed on this station.

Station 14: Entering a restaurant or eating area. Walk behind the team and evaluate how the team handles walking into an eating area. The dog should remain in a heel and not try to sample food from tables while walking by. Evaluate how the handler monitors and responds to the dog.

Station 15: Down/stay while in a restaurant. This is a good time to review how things are going with the handler. The handler should instruct the dog to go “under” the table, and the dog should remain in a down/stay for 10 minutes. Please time this portion of the test. The dog should not get up or try to beg food from the handler. The handler should not attempt to feed the dog under the table. A drink of water is acceptable, but food in a public place is not.

Station 16: Food “leave it” in a restaurant. At some point, while the dog in a down/stay under the table, drop a piece of food on the floor in front of the dog. The handler should be given advance notice of this, and should instruct the dog to “leave it”. The dog should ignore the food AND should remain in the down/stay position under the table.

Station 17: Controlled exit from the building. The dog should remain in a heel and not try to solicit attention from strangers. The handler should remain vigilant for attempts by the public to pet the dog and should respond to such attempts or questions appropriately.

Station 18: Controlled load into vehicle. Ensure that the handler load the dog into the vehicle and secures the dog prior to loading their groceries or bags in to the vehicle. The dog should remain in a heel and make no attempt to wander or pull at the leash while the handler is positioning equipment or getting their keys.

Station 19: Behavior and Team Work. You are to evaluate the team on communication and working style. Does the handler use positive reinforcement and praise? Does the team have good eye contact throughout? Is the behavior of the dog appropriate at all times and does the handler respond politely to public questions or concerns? All these are important issues.

UPON COMPLETION, the Evaluator will sit together with the client to go over the stations and discuss the final score with them. In the event that the individual has passed, review any stations that they had difficulty on and you may wish to make some suggestions. In the event that the team has not achieved a passing score, reassure them that they may make one more attempt no sooner than 3 months from the date of the first test, and give them some suggestions on things they can do to improve their chances of success on the next test. This is a good opportunity for you to offer your professional services in helping them train a dog to perform to standards on any stations that they are found to be deficient on.

LISTS OF TASKS THAT ARE APPROPRIATE FOR SERVICE DOGS

The following lists include, but are not limited to, some tasks that are considered appropriate to be used on a testing situation for various types of service dogs. Please use these lists as guides. If, however, an individual asks to include a task not on the list, and this appears to be necessary based on the disability of the individual, you are free to include that task. This list is intended to be used as a reference guide, not a substitute for good judgment. Thank you for taking the CSD Test. At this time we are unable to issue certification based on the score you have received today. You will be allowed another opportunity to take the test after you have had time to work on those areas the Evaluator has outlined with you. There is a mandatory 3 month waiting period before you will be allowed to re-test. Note that this is the minimum waiting period, but you are allowed to take whatever time you need before scheduling a re-test. It is the responsibility of the applicant to notify the FSDS at the end of three months to indicate your desire to re-test. The following area(s) is/are in need of remediation (use back of form if necessary):

We encourage you to continue to pursue certification. Each team works at a different pace, and not all teams will pass the test on the first attempt. Do not let this discourage you. You are to be congratulated on coming this far in your training. You may want to contact a trainer in your area to assist you in preparing for the re-test, or your evaluator may be able to assist you. Good luck!

Thank you for taking the CSD Test. Based on the scores recorded today and on the previous attempt at testing, we are unable to issue you certification. You will not be allowed to re-test with your current dog. If, however, you wish to test with a different dog in the future, you are free to do so. Some dogs, though loyal and loveable, are not best suited for service work. It is felt that your dog is not best suited for the following reason(s):

This is not a negative reflection on you, and does not imply that you have not put effort into your training. However, based on the issues noted, we strongly urge you to reconsider any decision to bring your dog into public places. Remember that you are solely responsible for the actions of your dog at all times, and at this time your dog is not considered appropriate to be in public places. This decision is final. Best wishes to you in your future training efforts.
