

Test

SVSH Boundaries Awareness

Name: _____

Date: _____

Email address: _____

Campus: _____

Identification: _____

(Campus, Medical Center, or location)

(Student or Employee ID)

Instructions: Complete this test and submit it to your campus UC Learning Center Administrator.

1. What are professional boundaries? Select the best response.
 - a. The dividers between different healthcare facilities
 - b. The lines between healthy and unhealthy interactions
 - c. The differences between doctors and nurses
 - d. The lines between verbal and written interaction
2. Select a scenario where a healthcare worker is showing warning signs of violating a boundary.
 - a. A medical assistant jokes about taking a patient on a date while chaperoning their intimate exam.
 - b. A clinical support staff member uses professional language when communicating with a patient.
 - c. A counselor shares intimate details about their marital struggles during a counseling session with a patient.
 - d. A receptionist is interacting with a patient on their personal social media account
3. How should you respond to inappropriate behavior?
 - a. Encourage the behavior
 - b. Address the behavior
 - c. Ignore the behavior
 - d. Blame it on the patient
4. To determine if a behavior is acceptable, you must Examine Actions, Consider Patient, Perceive Relationship, and _____. Select the best response.
 - a. Change Worksites
 - b. Consider Finances
 - c. Discuss Feelings
 - d. Imagine Outcomes
5. What should you do to report misconduct? Select all that apply.
 - a. Call Title IX Office
 - b. Discuss it with your peers
 - c. Submit online reporting form
 - d. Contact your supervisor