My Oak View Park Pack

A Resource for Visitors on the Autism Spectrum

Instructions:

- 1. Before you begin your visit, print out the checklist and the picture cards on the next pages to plan your trip to Oak View.
- 2. To help you decide where you want to go, read information about the different buildings and exhibits to learn about the history of Oak View and different activities you can explore during your visit to the park. Information can be found on our website and in our brochure.
- 3. When you've decided which areas you want to visit, cut out the corresponding cards and attach them to your checklist.
- 4. You can use the communication cards to say when you need to take a break, sit down, use the restroom, etc.
- 5. Be sure to leave some boxes on your checklist empty so you can add to your tour while you are at Oak View.
- 6. Bring your completed My Oak View checklist with you to the park.
- 7. Print out a blank checklist and extra cards in case you want to create another checklist while you are at the park.
- 8. When you are at the park and have completed a stop on your tour, check it off with a pencil in the "All Done" column.

Sensory tips & Activity suggestions

Busy places

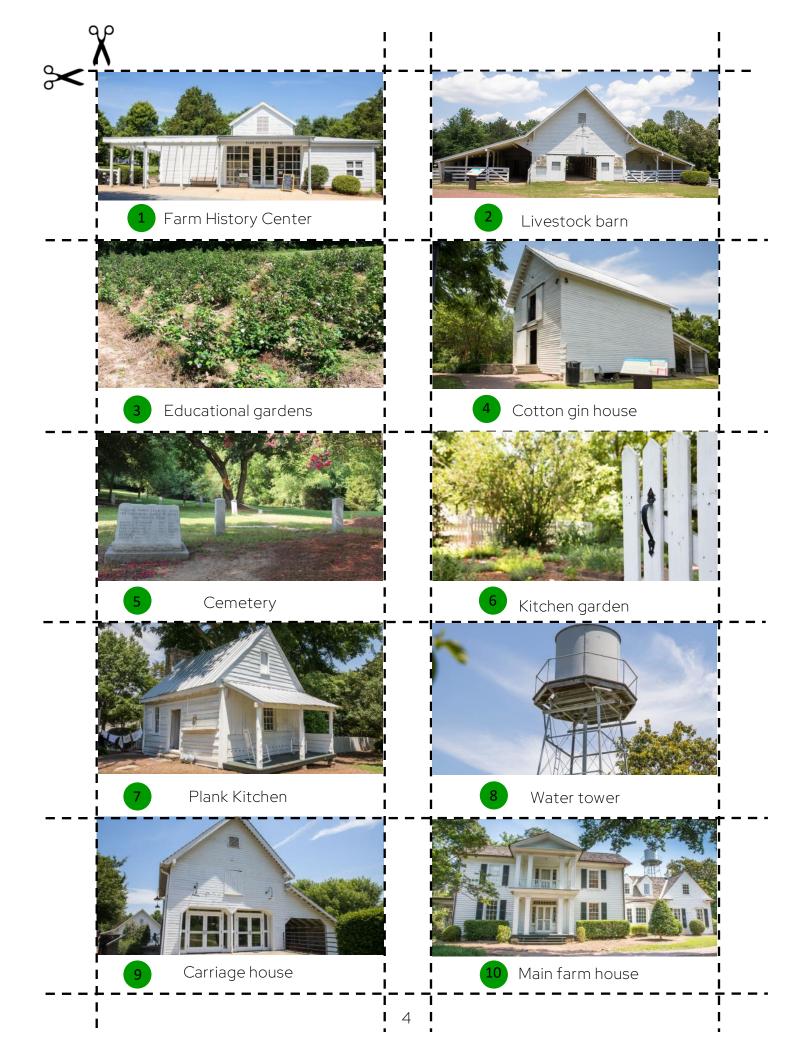

- The busiest time to visit is usually early to mid-morning. Quieter times are generally mid- to late weekday afternoons, early Saturday mornings, and early afternoon on Sundays. The park grounds are open from 8:30 a.m.– sundown every day, and the goats are out (weather permitting) from 9 a.m.– 4:30 p.m. Monday–Saturday and 1:30–4:30 p.m. Sunday.
- The Farmer's Corner is a very popular young children's play area, but please be aware that it can get very busy and loud during popular times (mornings and afternoons).

Quiet places

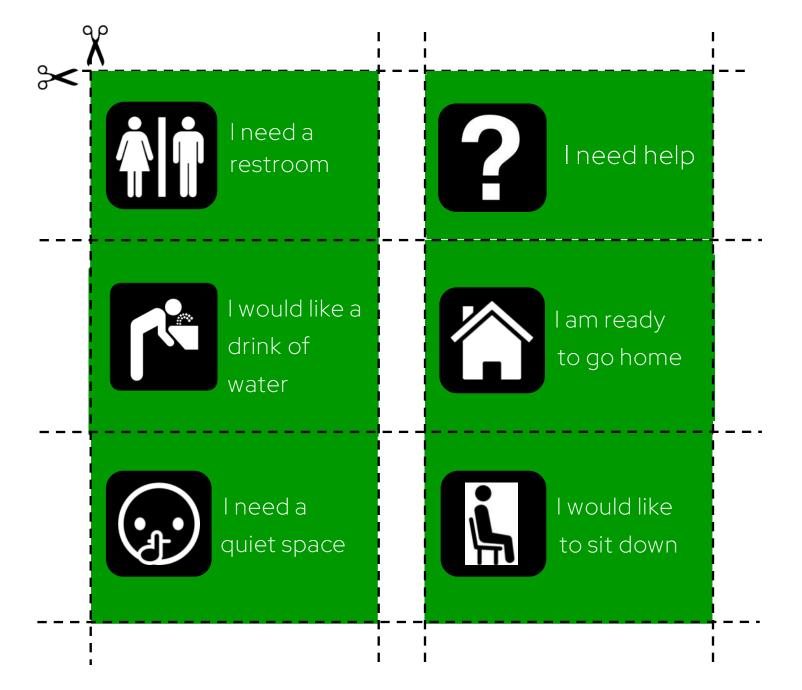

• The walking trails (Jones Creek Trail 0.7 miles, Hunnicut Trail 0.4 miles) offer quiet, shady opportunities to explore. The pecan grove also provides a shady area to rest or picnic under one of the historic pecan trees. The fishing pond also offers a quiet recreational opportunity (bring your own supplies, NC freshwater fishing regulations apply).

Tips for a great visit

- Places that offer more interaction and sensory opportunities include the "All in a Day's Work" play area in the Livestock Barn, and the "A Complicated Freedom" and "A Growing Challenge" exhibits in the Tenant House.
 Interpretive exhibits are also located in the Farm History Center, Cotton Gin House and Plank Kitchen.
- Be sure to visit our goats, and you can even bring carrot pieces or apple slices and feed them a treat! (Please check in with staff before feeding them). The chickens, located next to the Tenant House, are also fun to watch as they scratch in and around their coop!

ABOUT THE PARK

Historic Oak View County Park is a historic site that began as a 19th century plantation. The park includes historic farm buildings and structures, a visitor's center and gardens. The property's history reflects the transition from an antebellum plantation to a system of farm management, sharecropping and tenant farming. The site also has two picnic shelters, fishing ponds, hiking trails, goats and chickens. The park is open daily for visitors of all ages to experience Oak View's cultural and natural history.

RECREATION

Relax and enjoy the park's natural beauty. Have a picnic, cast a line in the ponds (NC freshwater fishing regulations apply), stroll through the gardens or take a hike down a shaded trail. Planning a gathering? Two picnic shelters are available to rent.

TOURS AND PROGRAMS

Public: The park offers free guided tours and programs for all ages. Want to tour the park on your own? Ask any staff member about our self-guided activities.

Group: Programs are available for a wide range of age groups. Field trip programs correlate with the North Carolina Standard Course of Study and feature inquiry-based learning that encourages students to think critically about history.

ANIMALS

welcoming visitors to the park, so make sure to stop by and see them. The chicken coop is located next to the Tenant House, and the goats can be found in one of the outdoor pens or in the barn.

PLACES FOR KIDS TO LEARN AND PLAY

The popular, interactive "Farmer's Corner" in the Farm History Center teaches children about farm life through hands-on activities, games, puzzles and books. Put your imagination to work and try your hand at farm chores at the "All in a Day's Work" station in the livestock barn.

EXHIBITS

Exhibits in many of the park's buildings interpret farm life from the 19th century to today.
