Geocache Description:

This geocache hide is a "Tree Hide". However, you cannot climb the tree to retrieve the geocache container. You must bring a special high reaching Geocaching "TOTT". My "TOTT" is, a 14-foot golf ball retriever pole that collapses to less than 4-feet and is light weight. The geocache container is a small camouflaged container hooked on a small tree limb approximately 20-feet high from ground level. Inside of the container is, a log sheet inside of a small ziploc bag. Also in the container is a small ziploc bag with several, 1-inch square Velcro "hook" material. You need to use only one Velcro square: to facilitate replacing the geocache container to its original hide location.
