

RCW SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

2024 Resource Conservation Workshop

June 23 - 28, 2024

Name: _____
Last First MI Name on Nametag

Gender: _____ Pronouns (Optional): _____ Age: _____ Grade next year: _____

Street address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____ County: _____

Email for workshop details and last minute instructions: _____

Student's phone number and best time for interview: _____

Name of parent(s) that student lives with: _____

Guardian 1 name: _____ Cell #: _____ Work #: _____

Guardian 1 occupation: _____ Email: _____

Guardian 2 name: _____ Cell #: _____ Work #: _____

Guardian 2 occupation: _____ Email: _____

School: _____ Heard about RCW from: _____

Dietary restrictions: Vegan Gluten-free Dairy-free Food allergy _____

Student parking pass needed? Yes No

(Only for vehicles that remain onsite at NCSU all week. Students must have parent's permission to drive vehicle while at workshop.)

IMPORTANT In student's own words, write an essay describing A) your personal interest in Natural Resource Conservation; B) any environmental/outdoor/volunteer experience at school, with family, or in your community; C) why you'd like to attend RCW and what you hope to learn; D) your career plans and/or how you plan to apply conservation in your life; and E) why you're the BEST candidate. Please respond using 250 words or less.

Blank area for the student's essay response.

Parent/guardian signature _____ Date _____

Student signature _____ Date _____

Postmark or submit application by 5 p.m. on Friday, March 22, 2024.

*Please return this completed Application, Essay, and Letter of Recommendation from an adult (but not your parents/guardian) by 03/22/2024 to Wake District by snail mail or hand-delivery to Wake Soil and Water Conservation District, 4001 Carya Drive, Suite D, Raleigh, NC 27610; or email to winifred.dorer@wake.gov.

You will be notified by April 19, 2024 or sooner of the Wake Soil and Water Conservation District Board's decision. Questions? Email winifred.dorer@wake.gov. Thank you for applying to the 2024 Resource Conservation Workshop!