

Crowder County Park

JANUARY PUBLIC PROGRAMS

View our Facebook page for program and park updates.

Crowder By Night: Owl Prowl Friday, January 9, 4-5 p.m.

Go on an Owl Prowl and discover the kinds of owls that are found in the Piedmont, what they eat, where they live and what they sound like. Dissect an owl pellet and practice your owl calls. Best for ages 5 & up; FREE. Registration is required, and children must have adult accompaniment.

Winter Tree Walk Sunday, January 11, 2-3 p.m.

Can you identify your favorite trees in the winter? Join us as we explore our tree trail on a nature hike! Learn how to identify trees using bark and branches and make a few rubbings to take home! Best for ages 5 & up; FREE. Registration is required, and children must have adult accompaniment.

Snowball Science! Wednesday, January 21, 11 a.m.-noon

Did you know that no two snowflakes are the same? Sip on hot cocoa and observe snow and ice through hands-on science experiments. Don't forget to bring your scarf and mittens! For all ages; FREE. Registration is required, and children must have adult accompaniment.

Self-Guided Activities

- StoryWalk®: Jan. 3-31
  - Winter Lullaby
  - by Dianne White

Tiny Tots:

Winter Is the Warmest Season,
by Lauren Stringer
Monday, January 26
English Version: 10:15 -11 a.m.

We hope your tiny tots can join us for a fun story time with a craft activity after! This month we are reading Winter Is the Warmest Season. This poetic book celebrates all the wonderful things that make winter the coziest time of the year.

Spanish Version

The Spanish version of Tiny Tots will be taking a break until spring. Nos tomamos un descanso de Spanish Tiny Tots hasta la primavera. Manténgase al día para cuando comienza la temporada de otoño en nuestra página de Facebook.

All programs meet at the Cardinal Shelter, the first right after entering the park. Please dress for cold weather.
